STEADFASTNESS IN WORSHIP

Let us strive to increase our taqwa of Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala with full obedience, certainty and sincerity, which is by fulfilling all of His Commands and avoiding all of His prohibitions.

Truly, may we become individuals having taqwa, attaining salvation in this world and the Hereafter.

On this blessed day, let us ponder upon a khutbah entitled:
“Steadfastness In Worship.”

Indeed, istiqamah (steadfastness) or consistency in performing 'ibadah or being in the state of obedience is something that is very difficult to achieve.

This is because imaan is actually in the heart. And the heart as it is known in Arabic as “qalbun” is defined as something having that is always vacillating. Hence, a person may have imaan in the morning, but falls into kuf (disbelief) at night. Or being in the state of obedience in the morning, but transgresses at night. Or doing good deeds in the morning, but plunges into heedlessness at night. Because it is the nature of the heart to always vacillate, or not istiqamah and being consistent. Anas bin Maalik radhiyAllaahu 'anh narrated that Rasulullah (ﷺ) said:

“...Indeed the hearts are between the two Fingers of Allah's Fingers, He changes them as He wills.”

(at-Tirmidhi: saheeh)

Istiqaamah means to follow one path or remaining consistent upon one guideline. Imam an-Nawawi rahimahullaah explained istiqaamah stating that: “The scholars have mentioned that istiqaamah is to always remain in the obedience to Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala. This is the istiqamah that is emphasized by al-Qur'an and as-Sunnah."

For example, to consistently pray the fard prayer in congregation, always performing the qabliyah and ba'diyah sunnah prayers, istiqaamah in covering one's 'awrah, istiqaamah in giving away one's wealth for charity in the Path of Allah, and many others. Indeed, istiqaamah is truly difficult. That is why Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala has promised a huge reward for those that constantly remain in istiqaamah.

Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala
mentions in al-Qur'an:

“Indeed, those who have said, “Our Lord is Allah,” and then remained on a right course - the angels will descend upon them, [saying], “Do not fear and do not grieve but receive good tidings of Paradise, which you were promised.””

(Fussilat 61:30)

Indeed, istiqaamah is heavily emphasized in our religion. Istiqaamah is truly emphasized in Islam, as it was decreed by Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala and His Messenger.

Among them is the verse in al-

Qur'an:

“So remain on a right course as you have been commanded, [you] and those who have turned back with you [to Allah],

and do not transgress.
Indeed, He is Seeing of what you do.”

(Hood 11:112)

Among ahaadeeth that mentions istiqaamah is the narration by Sufyaan bin ‘Abdullah ath-Thaqafi radiyAllaahu ‘anh, whom reported:

I said, “O Messenger of Allah, tell me something of Islam which I will not ask anyone else about it.” He (ﷺ) said, “Say, ‘I believe in Allah’ and then be steadfast.”

(Muslim)

Through the selected verses and this hadeeth, it is evident that istiqamah is a command from Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala.
While the hadeeth explains that the key to success or living guidelines in attaining the pleasure of Allah is achieved through istiqamah.

Furthermore, the explanation from Rasulullah (ﷺ) in answering the Companion's question truly emphasize that in order for one to excel and succeed in this world and Hereafter, it must be with solid imaan and continuous deeds with consistency or istiqamah.

Among matters that hinders istiqamah is when one deem sinning and disobedience as something light, always busy with worldly affairs without concerning about the

Hereafter, and surrounded with bad environment whether having immoral companions, broken homes, or living in an 'uncivilized' society. All these are among the factors that would cripple one's effort for istiqamah in preserving obedience unto Allah Subhaanahu Wata'ala.

Among the characteristics of istiqamah, whether through the actions of the heart, tongue, and limbs, in continuously remaining in obedience are:

1- Obedience with full mujaahadah in fighting against the nafs. Indeed, imaan increases and decreases. Hence, the Muslim must remain mujahadah in performing the obligatory 'ibaadah, and perfecting them with supererogatory acts.

2- Always attending knowledge-oriented activities. Indeed, knowledge is the key to all goodness. With knowledge, one will come to know, worship, and devote oneself to Allah

knowledge, one will know his obligations upon Allah

Subhaanahu Wata'aala. With knowledge, fulfilling the obligation towards Allah

Subhaanahu

Wata'aala will become easy, beautiful, and enjoyable.

3- Ikhlaas (sincerity) in seeking knowledge and practicing them.

Verily, ikhlaas is the soul of all 'ibaadah. When ikhlaas is fertile and cultivated in the heart, then 'ibaadah will continue to flourish, stemming from the heart.

4- Befriending or being in the company of the righteous.

Indeed, being in the company of the righteous can strengthen one's enthusiasm to continue remaining in the obedience of Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala. Furthermore, even a good environment would suffice to save us from heedlessness, what more if we are always in the company of those having good conduct, righteous, and obedient to Allah

5- Moderation in religious practice and behavior. Indeed, moderation in religious practice according to one's ability becomes the savior from feeling fatigue or boredom, which in the end prompts one to abandon them entirely. Verily, a good practice would be low in quantity but performed continuously. Insha Allah, a small beginning will definitely result in multitudes when it becomes a habit.

Among other deeds that would aid in istiqaamah is to always engage in istighfaar, du'aa, adhkaar, remembering death, making

tawbah, and yearning to die having the Pleasure of Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala.

Among the benefits of istiqamah is that one will always remain in the company of the angels of mercy, one's heart and life engulfed in peace and happiness, and even paradise is guaranteed for him and his rizq expanded by Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala.

Let us altogether remain determined and committed towards obedience by creating a righteous or conducive environment so that it will stimulate and encourage goodness for all of us. May we always remain in obedience, forgiveness, and mercy of Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala. The conclusions that can be derived from today's khutbah are as follows:

1- We must always remain istiqamah in fulfilling religious duties decreed by Allah Subhaanahu Wata'aala through the verses of al-Qur'an and the sunnah of Rasulullah (ﷺ).

2- We must always be in the company of the scholars and the righteous and frequent circles of knowledge to discipline the soul in attaining blissfulness in this world and the Hereafter.

3- We must always make du'aa to Allah so that we will forever remain in obedience and standing firm until we breathe our last.

“[Who say], “Our Lord, let not our hearts deviate after You have guided us and grant us from Yourself mercy.
Indeed, You are the Bestower.””

(Aal-‘Imraan 3:8)

بَارَكَ اللهُ لِيْ وَلكُمْ فِي الْقُرْآنِ الْعَظِيْمِ وَنَفَعَنِي وَإِيَّاكُمْ بِمَا فِيهِ مِنَ الْآيَاتِ وَالذِّكْرِ الْحَكِيْمِ وَتَقَبَّلْ مِنِّي وَمِنْكُمْ تِلَاوَتَهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيْمُ. أَقُولُ قَوْلِيْ هَذَا وَأَسْتَغْفِرُ اللهَ الْعَظِيْمَ لِيْ وَلكُمْ وَلِسَائِرِ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ الْأَحْيَاءِ مِنْهُمْ وَالْأَمْوَاتِ فَاسْتَغْفِرُوهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيْمُ

O Allah, you are the Lord that is All Mighty, we are grateful to You for having bestowed upon us rahmah and ni'mah, that we are able to continue the effort in empowering the Muslim ummah especially in Selangor, as an advanced state, prosperous, and providing welfare.

Hence, we sincerely beseech you, O Allah, strengthen our imaan, accept our deeds, strengthen our unity, increase our rizq, enrich us with beneficial knowledge, cultivate our soul with good mannerisms, return us to the path that you are pleased with, protect us from disasters and your severe trials, so that our nation will become more peaceful and filled with blessings.

O Allah, we sincerely beseech you, strengthen our beliefs according to the creed of Ahluṣ Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah, and protect us from deeds and 'aqeedah that are astray such as the extreme Shee'is, Qadiyani, and other ideologies.

O Allah, open up our hearts in fulfilling the five daily prayers, performing zakaat, and other obligations. Bless those that have fulfilled their zakaat and loving the fuqaraa' and masaakin, and those that have made waqf and gave up their wealth for the Tabung Amanah Pembangunan Islam Selangor (Islamic Development Trust Fund of Selangor) with continuous reward until the Day of Judgment.
